We hope that you will find meaning and purpose in the many stories shared by our partners, directors, members and associates. Each story is a unique insight to who we are, and how Alaska’s industries are collaborating to build a skilled workforce and jobs for Alaskans. Reach out, connect, and help us write the next story of APICC.

Do you have an APICC story? Please share it by turning in the “What’s your story?” card provided on your table!
